

Saskatchewan people have the ability to end poverty in our province.

Be Part of the Solution,
LET'S END POVERTY!

Knox Met United Church - October 17th - 9:30 - 4:00
FREE! Register online at povertyfreesask.ca by October 1

Some of the things we'll discuss:

How can we integrate anti-poverty work into service delivery planning? What should we focus on? Specific campaigns include: anti-poverty legislation, fighting government cutbacks, changing attitudes towards people living in poverty. How do we strengthen the networks among people addressing poverty? How do people, organizations and agencies work together to end poverty?

Our speakers will be:

Dr. Lori Hanson, Faculty, Community Health and Epidemiology in the University of Saskatchewan College of Medicine: Austerity and Health

Dr. Rachel Engler-Stringer, Faculty, Community Health and Epidemiology in the University of Saskatchewan College of Medicine: Food Security and Student Poverty

Cora Sellers, Carmichael Outreach, Regina: Poverty From the Front Lines, the Current Crisis

Janice Boughen and Heather Turcotte, Partners to End Poverty, Nipawin: Poverty in Saskatchewan, A Rural Perspective

Roberta Fehr, Equal Justice for All, Saskatoon: Defending the Rights of People in Poverty

Peter Gilmer, Poverty Free Saskatchewan and the Regina Anti-Poverty Ministry: An Act to Eliminate Poverty in Saskatchewan from a Human Rights Perspective.

Nairn MacKay, Poverty Free Saskatchewan and End Poverty Regina : Anti-Poverty Work, Stigma and "Political Will"

Paul Gingrich, Poverty Free Saskatchewan, Professor Emeritus, Department of Sociology and Social Studies, University of Regina: Current Poverty Statistics and the Living Wage

Brian Banks, Poverty Free Saskatchewan: PFS Goals and Recent Activities

We would be grateful for donations to cover our costs by e-transfer to povertyfreesask@gmail.com

Please note that PFS is not a registered charity. Donations are not tax deductible.

In partnership with

Thank you to our donors:

Takeaway Gourmet & Italian Star Deli

With special thanks to:

Regina Public Interest Research Group (RPIRG)

Regina Education and Action on Child Hunger (REACH)